SIR,

Re: Continuance of the posts of Special Sheristedar and Assistant Food Inspector in Chamarajanagar.

Adverting to Government Order No. SD.5936-38/A./121-44-6 dated 29-3-1945 sanctioning the appointments of one Special Sheristedar and one Assistant Food Inspector for attending to distribution of food grains in Chamarajanagar Taluk and directing that both these two posts should cease with effect from 1-4-1945, I have the honour to state as follows:

Chamarajanagar Taluk is a very large Taluk consisting of 190 villages with a population of 1,71,000. It is also a border taluk with a large floating population. The staple food in the rural areas of the taluk is jola. But, during last year, this staple summer crop was a total failure on account of ravages of an insect known as " Ear head bugs" (ಜೊಳ್ಳು ಹುಳು). The destruction of the entire crop was an alarming matter as it meant that almost the entire population was deprived of its staple food. The Director of Food Supplies therefore made immediate arrangements to rush C.P. Jola to Chamarajanagar. Consequently, the distribution work in the Taluk became not only unwieldy but also important. For this purpose a large number of sales depots had to be organized scattered all over the distressed areas, and efficient transport arrangements had to be made on a rush basis for the distribution of jola in the interior parts of the Taluk. In all 64 rural depots were opened through Co-operative societies. A list of needy persons was prepared in all the villages and every village was brought under some society or the other within a radius of five miles. It was in the aforesaid peculiar circumstances that a special staff consisting of one Special Sheristedar and one Assistant Food Inspector was sanctioned to attend exclusively to the proper distribution of food grains in the Taluk, as it was found impracticable to entrust this additional duty to the Special Officer appointed for acquisition work. The above arrangements and the distribution of food grains through a rough system of rationing has been working very satisfactorily, and in fact a general feeling of thankfulness to Government is prevailing in the country side for the timely and efficient action taken by Government in the distribution of food grains. This fact is evidenced by the good results of acquisition of paddy in the taluk during this year, as the people have confidence that even if they part with their surplus paddy, they are sure to get their staple food-grain which is jola and other millets.

In the foregoing peculiar circumstances, I feel that it is very necessary to continue the special staff of one Special Sheristedar and one Assistant Food Inspector and continue the existing arrangements of distribution of foodgrains in Chamarajanagar Taluk till the end of August 1945 when the next harvest of jola will commence. During the recent visit of the Minister for Food and Civil Supplies to Chamarajanagar, the people expressed their gratitude and satisfaction about the existing distribution arrangements. When it was brought to his kind notice that the staff has been directed to be terminated with effect from 1-4-1945, the Minister was pleased to ask me to send up proposals for the continuance of the special staff and assured the people that the existing arrangements would be continued. The continuance of the Special Sheristedar and the Assistant Food Inspector are absolutely necessary in the interest of efficient transport arrangements and distribution of food grains in this Taluk. I therefore request you kindly to obtain sanction of Government to the continuance of the services of the Special Sheristedar and one Assistant Food Inspector till the end of ~~July~~ August 1945. I also request that sanction of Government may kindly obtained to the entertainment of three peons on Rs.10/- each, two for the Special Sheristedar and one for the Assistant Food Inspector, to enable them to discharge their executive duties efficiently.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Mysore District.
